2005 Tigers Baseball Season

Entering his third year, Head Coach Jerry Edwards was uncertain of what the 2005 season would hold. Coming off a season where his team won 33 games, the most in school history, and a third place finish in the state tournament, he had a lot of holes to fill. With the loss of nine sophomores, the Tigers had a whole new look this season. The Tigers returned one position player, outfielder Trevor Urbanick. On the mound the Tigers returned four pitchers, Chase Ellison, Josh Holman, Rob Sherwood, and Josh Sing. Along with the four returnees the Tigers have added six freshmen to the pitching staff.

Coach Edwards: Our season will depend on how well our freshmen position players develop. We have added some quality freshmen but some of them struggled this fall. They need to understand what the college game is all about and be able to make the adjustment from high school to college. Our pitching staff has some depth. All four of our returnees got a lot of quality innings last season. We will need those guys to have big years and hope some of our freshmen come on in the spring.

HIWASSEE COLLEGE DRAMA

The fall production of “Steel Magnolias” was an unforgettable experience with actresses and audiences alike. The popular southern-based story told the tale of five strong audacious women and their bond to each other. Humor and heart combined in this theatrical production that brought a tear to the eye and a smile to the face of audience members. The roles were filled by Jennifer Davis as Truvy, Stephanie Ray as Shelby, Ashley Wise as M’Lynn, Donna Boring as Clairee, Kristine Vainovska as Annelle, and Jessica Wilson as Ouiser (Wheezer). Director Micah Montague’s take on the production was a positive one, “I was very pleased with the overall production. One quality that shows this was a success is when I asked people who their favorite character was; I got many mixed responses. I had balanced positive responses about everyone. This was truly an ensemble production. The play itself is widely produced because it strikes a cord, especially in Southern audiences. Audience members could identify with the values of the characters.”

Hiwassee Drama and Music Combine to Produce Children of Eden

by Jessica Wilson

This past year, the drama department of Hiwassee College brought something to the stage of Butcher Auditorium that had not been seen in almost five years--a musical.

An infusion of music, dance, and drama was put on at this year's spring performance of Children of Eden. The theatrical extravaganza told the story of the first seven chapters of the Bible, beginning with the creation of the world, its animals, and its first human inhabitants--Adam and Eve. The performance ended with Noah and his family departing from the ark and journeying their separate ways to discover their own destinies.

Thirteen principle actors and actresses graced the stage of the musical: Brandy Nickelson as Father God, Alex Walker as Adam/Noah, Kristine Vainovska as Eve/Noah's wife, Ashley Wise as the snake, Jesse Meiers as Cain/Japeth, Erik Seaman as Abel/Ham, Allison Grubb as Yonah, Jessica Wilson as Aphra, Kerri Armstrong as Aysha, Tony Lyles as Shem, and young Cain and Abel were portrayed by Eamon Felton and Harry Ellis.

Along with these was a splendid chorus: Megan Abbott, Steven Baily, Rutendo Chikanya, Katherine Frank, Zoe Frank, Kraig Lawrence, Beth Simpson, Ashley White, and Hattie Massengill.

Director Micah Montague, music coordinator and director Dr. Hoffman Pereira, and choreographer Deborah Penchoff led the cast to success.

The performance was a lot of hard work from very dedicated and talented people. Montague's take on the overall performnace was enthusiastic, "Music speaks to people on an emotional level. It goes straight to the gut, bypassing the head. For that reason, it has an appeal that plays do not have."

The cast of Children of Eden practiced for over six weeks in order to turn out the outstanding performance they gave. Here, the actors and actresses are practicing for the big opening night.

Hiwassee College Events Page

Hiwassee College hosts numerous events throughout its academic year. Events such as Homecoming, Halloween, and the Spring Formal allow for campus-wide participation and the traditions of Hiwassee College to be carried out year by year.

Homecoming

Homecoming is held each year in the fall to commemorate students both past and present. Many activities such as Cow Patty Bingo, the Heritage Walk, and a basketball game lead up to the main event. Homecoming nominees are elected by the student body. The 2004 nominees include the following:

Queen Candidates

Megan Abbott

Keri Armstrong

Allison Grubb

Ruby Robinson

Alicia Sands

Tiffany Sylvester

Erik Seaman and Megan Abbott were chosen as the 2004 Homecoming King and Queen.

King Candidates

Tionne Davis

Brian Fulbright

Mario McClunie

Brandon Moore

Jesse Meiers

Erik Seaman

Homecoming activities are made possible by groups such as the Student Government Association (SGA), Phi Theta Kappa (PTK), and alumni participation. Homecoming is a traditional event that has existed for many years. There have been many graduates who call Hiwassee "home."

Halloween

Halloween is a holiday that Hiwassee students place much emphasis on. On campus, it is not a night of evil and trickery, but rather a time of light-hearted fun and games.

Dr. Allen, English professor, poses as a clown.

Dorm decorating participants from Allison

Hiwassee College opens its doors to the community for safe Halloween fun for kids both young and old.

SGA sponsors Halloween games that are held in the Rymer Student Center to provide an area for young children. These children from the community participate in the games.

Dorm decorating contests and Halloween games involve the entire campus. This year, the dorm decorating award went to Brock Hall for their captivating Disney collaboration.

Spring Formal

Spring Formal is an SGA sponsored event to celebrate the end of a strenuous stress-filled, exam-cramming academic year and the coming of summer. Students have an opportunity to ditch the pajamas (the normal everyday student apparel) and slip into something more glamorous. The 2005 Spring Formal was held at the Springbrook Country

Club in Niota, Tennessee, April 15, at seven o'clock p.m. Students purchased tickets to enjoy a night of fine dining and dancing with lifetime friends made at Hiwassee. This is a time to let loose and have a good time.

These events provide an opportunity to develop the congenial relationship that exists among fellow students and faculty. This goes to produce the close-knit community that can be found on Hiwassee's campus. Professors and students alike acquire a respect for one another that is only strengthened by participation in such events. In keeping tradition, Hiwassee continues these activities year after year.

42	Andre Hill	G	6'1	FR	Memphis, TN
11	Tionne Davis	G	5'10	FR	Philadelphia, PA

Head Coach: L.J. Kilby

Assistant: Richard Mury

The Hiwassee College Men's Basketball team is coached by Coach Kilby. He has been playing basketball since elementary school. Coach Kilby grew up without a father, and his coaches were his biggest role models. They inspired him to be a coach. Coach Kilby has coached many different universities including a Division One school in Georgia.

The men's team, like the girl's, did not have a full squad. With only seven players, there were times when they could not substitute players. They had to play thirty to forty minutes and sometimes had to play with four players.

I went to all the guys' games and some of their away games. I saw that the guys played very hard and worked together as a team. I also saw that the team had its ups and downs, but when it came to basketball they all agreed on working together. Everyone on the men's team is coming back next year, and they hope to have a good season. They know what to do and how to get where they need to win a lot of games. I believe that the team will be better next year and will have more members on the team.

“I have been playing basketball forever and to me it is nothing. What I mean is I have been playing for so long that I know it like I know the back of my hand. One thing I learned at Hiwassee was that a team stands together no matter what, through the good and the bad.”

“I have been playing basketball since I was four years old and I love the game. Basketball is my life and Hiwassee has helped me out. Coach Kilby taught us how to play as a team and how to work together. Hiwassee also taught me schoolwork comes before basketball. Our basketball team next year will be better because we will have more players and we won’t be so tired all the time.”

2004 Men's Roster

Top Row (left to right): Cody Thompson, David Robinson, Uguray Isik, Eric LeCea, and Kyle Black, Will Mullins, Erik Seaman, David Robbins
Not Pictured: Guillermo Loaiza-Centeno, Isaias Guichapa and Jesse Hargis.
Coached by: Kevin Rushing.

Kelly Rushing pushes the other player off the ball and pushes an attack.

The Hiwassee Tigers gave it their all this season. This group of guys was filled with talent and played more aggressively and with more intensity than all of their opponents. These guys did what they had to do but time after time, they came up short on the scoreboard. Their record ended up being 1-12-2 but this record did not tell the story of the 2004 season. Head Coach Kevin Rushing comments on the season, "We outplayed many of our opponents. We played more aggressive and had many teams on their heels but we just couldn't get the ball in the goal."

This team was led by three great sophomore captains: Cody Thompson, Daniel McAllister and Erik Seaman. Cody Thompson controlled the play in the mid-field area. Coach Rushing said, “Cody is the ideal captain who kept the team in line.” Daniel McAllister is a force of speed. With his aggression, talent, and speed, Daniel had the ability to put fear in the opponents’ eyes. Erik Seaman is the third captain. Erik led the defense. Coach Rushing comments, “Erik is a talented, aggressive leader, who is the heart of this defense.” Erik received the Britton Award for going above and beyond the call of duty.

Kelly Rushing and Aldo Heredia, along with many others, played an intense role in the Tiger attack. Kelly Rushing, the voice of this team, was the most intense player on the team; he never gave up and he always kept play upbeat and fun to watch. Aldo Heredia also played a huge role. Coach Rushing said, “Aldo is extremely athletic, and an extremely talented player. I could put him anywhere on the field and the outcome would always be positive.”

This team had what it took to have a successful season; talent, aggression, and the attitude to back it up. They also had enough shots on goal but the problem came with the number of shots in the goal. This season was disappointing but the Tigers never gave up and played to the end. Even with a losing season, this team always played hard and showed enough aggression to compete against any opponent. This group of guys always gave an intense, interesting show that reflected the effort this team put forth. Coach Rushing is looking forward to coaching the talented freshmen of this year, next season so...watch out!

Phi Theta Kappa (PTK) is a national honors program for junior colleges. Members are admitted based on high academic performance. Freshmen may be admitted who have completed at least twelve hours and obtain a grade point average of 3.5 or higher. Other students are admitted upon completing twenty-four credit hours and achieving a grade point average of 3.2 or higher. PTK also makes its recognition and benefits available to part-time students who qualify. Phi Theta Kappa functions as an excellent reference for future resumes and school applications.

The national honors program is divided by regions. At Hiwassee, the nationally recognized chapter is Delta Zeta. Dr. Arthur Fowler and Dr. Tom Lee serve as PTK sponsors and help in conducting and coordinating PTK events. Each year, new officers are elected to serve in leadership positions. The 2004-2005 academic year officers include Stephanie Wilhoit- Regional Secretary, Alicia Sands- Vice President for Service, Kara Sherlin- Vice President for Scholarship, Brian Fulbright- Vice President for Leadership, Kari Sharp- Vice President for Fellowship, and Cayci Barham- Communications Secretary.

The Delta Zeta chapter holds fifty-seven members. An induction ceremony is held each semester for new inductees. These students receive recognition for their efforts and hard work. To be a member of PTK is an honor and well deserved award for those striving to attain academic excellence.

Spring 2005 inductees were Charlie Arp, Lora Bolt, Stephanie Cathcart, Joshua Debity, Sarah Dixon, Rachel Dunsmore, Allison Grubb, Brandon Harveston, Asher Hoffman, George Mead, Denny Perrine, Lisa Queener, Ruby Robinson, Shelley Runyon, Lori Sherman, Kristine Vainovska, Jaida Walden, Alexander Walker, Steven Walker, Martha Ward, Cody Watts, and David Zeanah.

PTK is active in providing community service. This past year, members participated in sponsoring a Halloween party, a Valentine's Day party, and an Easter egg hunt for local Head Start children. PTK also coordinates dates for the Medic Blood Drive on Hiwassee's campus and participates in making arrangements for a community-wide blood drive.

Aside from community service, PTK also conducts fundraisers for the club’s travel expenses to the yearly competition held in March. Cow Patty Bingo is a campus-wide participation favorite. PTK holds this event during Homecoming week and sells tickets to raise funds. Who would imagine that hoping your cow will “plop” on your number would be so much fun? Another fundraising event is Can Crushing Mania. Aluminum cans are collected throughout the campus and the community. PTK members crush the cans which are then sent to a recycling facility. During final exams, PTK offers an opportunity for parents to support their students during “cram” sessions. Letters are sent to parents which allow them to order “goodie bags” for their student for a small fee. These bags which include “study foods” along with a beverage are assembled and delivered by PTK members. Funds raised benefit PTK members, the Hiwassee campus, and the community.

Phi Theta Kappa provides its members with many benefits. Four-year educational institutions often offer scholarships to active PTK members. "Scholarship money is a definite perk. I will be able to gain a PTK scholarship from Tennessee Wesleyan, where I plan to attend in the fall," states Vice President for Fellowship, Kari Sharp.

"PTK members find success because of their ability to handle several tasks."

-Dr. Fowler, PTK Sponsor

Involvement with PTK opens up leadership opportunities that could eventually benefit one in the workplace. In an interview with Dr. Fowler, he explains, "Involvement with PTK helps people juggle several things at once." Being active with PTK promotes and strengthens life skills. As Cayci Barham explains, "After being a PTK officer, I can leave Hiwassee with leadership skills that I can use throughout my lifetime."

"Phi Theta Kappa has taught us
[the officers] how to work as a team, and we have really accomplished
much this year."

-Kara Sherlin, Vice President for Scholarship

Phi Theta Kappa is a wonderful organization that supports the campus, the community, and its members. It encourages individuals to strive toward academic excellence and achievement. 😊

Student Government Association 2004-2005

The Student Government Association is led by a group of students trying to bring about change on Hiwassee's campus. They are also in charge of the campus activities. The Valentine's dance, Homecoming, 3 on 3 basketball tournament, and other events just like these are products of SGA. SGA has also sponsored events such as the cross-dressing pageant. Students have been allowed to do things like skating and bowling cheaper than normal thanks to SGA. This year's Student Government is planning new activities for next year, such as an enormous slip-n-slide. Thank you to all that participated in SGA!

Lady Tigers Basketball

The Lady Tigers basketball team was coached by Danny Green. Coach Green worked wonders this season with the Lady Tigers. When he came to Hiwassee College in the middle of the semester, he only had three players; three were sophomores, and one played only the second semester. Coach Green then picked up two soccer players and a softball player. Despite this, the Lady Tigers had a good year, even with only having seven players. This meant that they sometimes could not substitute, had to play thirty or forty minutes, and sometimes had to play with four players.

*If one has no confidence in self, then you have lost the race in life. But if one has confidence, you have won the race before it ever began. This season was a big experience for me. I had to adjust to playing with only six players, but the season was fun. I learned to never give up even when you feel like you can't go any further.
They say 'only the strong survive,' and please believe me, Hiwassee College basketball team survived! -Nicole Cohen*

This basketball season was about overcoming obstacles. With seven players total, we ran into many problems that could have broken us, but we didn't let these problems get to us. We dealt with them, learned from them, and then pushed forward. I learned that life may not always go as you plan, but if you keep your head up and push on, the Lord just may have a purpose for these unintended adventures.      -Amy 'Hoot' Fritts

Basketball and our season were pretty awful looking at our SCORES, but it was very entertaining. Everything was funny especially playing beanbag basketball in the van!

-Jena

The Lady Tigers did really well this season. They worked hard and never gave up. All any adversity did was make them work even harder. Coach Green worked the players very hard on and off the court so that the group would be a team. Other people saw this too and that is why he received the award "Coach of the Year" at the regional tournament.

2004 Lady Tiger Soccer

Another year is in the books for the Lady Tigers. Under the leadership of first year head coach Kevin Rushing, the girls found themselves competing in every game. With only two returning players, Rushing had to fill positions with a lot of freshmen. "This team may be young but we have talent and potential for success," Kevin Rushing said with a smile on his face. Along with two returning sophomores, Captain Amy Fritts at attacking center midfield and Cassandra Grant, an extremely aggressive wing midfielder, the Lady Tigers had a lot of strengths. The Tigers have a strong defense, led by freshman Elizabeth Brooks, and a speedy foreign attack.

The Lady Tigers are coached by Kevin Rushing.

Krystal Goodman throws in the ball.

The Lady Tigers have two international players this year. Katie O'Neill is from England and was the leading scorer this year. Coach Rushing says, "Katie is an aggressive player who is fearless when it comes down to shooting. If she is close, she is not afraid to be the one to step up and take the game over." The second part of the foreign attack is Sharkia Evans. Sharika is a big time player from Jamaica. Coach Rushing said, "Sharika played wherever I needed her. If we needed help on defense, she would play back and if I needed someone to push the ball, she could do that too."

Elizabeth Brooks boots the ball out of her house.

During the season, the Lady Tigers had to battle many injuries and play against teams with twice as many players but they never backed down. The girls worked together and fought through every game. They won some and lost some, but they always gave it their all. In the end, they reached their goal and won the regional championship against rival St. Catherine's. The Lady Tigers claimed their trophy and finished a successful season at 9 and 6.
